Complete this form and send it to Addrene: addrene@hotmail.ca

We will try to match up possible rides with passengers. If someone is heading your way, we will send you each an email with their contact information.

It will be up to you to make the contact and figure out if you can work out a time and place to meet on the trip.

If you do find a ride or arrange to pick up someone please contact Addrene and let her know so she can take you off her list.

Thanks!!
